Name:

Dr Syama Prasad Mookerjee

Loksabha Constituency: South Kolkata,
West Bengal (1952 to 1957)

Father's Name: Sir Ashutosh Mookerjee

Date of birth: 6 July 1901

Education: M.A., B.L., D.Litt., L.L.D.,
Bar-at-law

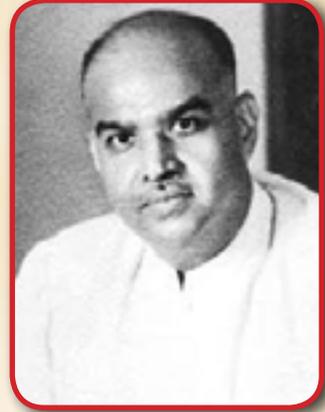

Spouse: Shreemati Sudha Devi

Professional Life: Member, Bengal

Legislative Council, 1929-37; Member, Bengal Legislative Assembly, 1937-47; Minister, Finance, Bengal, 1941-42; Member, Provisional Parliament, 1950-52; Member, 1st Lok Sabha; Union Minister, Industry and Supply, 19 April 1950. Vice-Chancellor, Calcutta University.

Political Career: Dr. Syama Prasad Mukherjee started his political career in 1929, when he entered the Bengal Legislative Council as an Indian National Congress (INC) candidate representing Calcutta University. However, he resigned the next year when the INC decided to boycott the legislature. Subsequently, he contested the election as an independent candidate and was elected in the same year. In 1937, he was elected as an independent candidate in the elections which brought the Krishak Praja Party to power.

He served as the Finance Minister of Bengal Province in 1941-42 under A.K. Fazlul Haq's Progressive Coalition government which was formed on 12 December 1941 after the resignations of the Congress government. During his tenure, his statements against the government were censored and his movements were restricted. He was also prevented from visiting the Midnapore district in 1942 when severe floods caused a heavy loss of life and property. He resigned on 20 November 1942 accusing the British government of trying to hold on to India under any cost and criticised its repressive policies against the Quit India Movement. After resigning, he mobilised support and organised relief with the help of Mahabodhi Society, Ramakrishna Mission and Marwari Relief Society. In 1946, he was again elected as an independent candidate from the Calcutta University. He was elected as a member of the Constituent Assembly of India in the same year.

He was elected to the Lok Sabha (the lower house of the Indian parliament) in 1971 from Gwalior; a nine-term member of the Lok Sabha, Madhavrao Scindia never lost an election since 1971, when he won for the first time from Guna constituency at the age of 26. He contested the election on the ticket of Jana Sangh, a party that his family had long patronised; in the 1977 election after the emergency was lifted, he contested from Guna constituency as an Independent candidate and still won the seat a second time in spite of the wave in favour of Janata Party (Bhartiya Lok Dal-BLD); in the 1980 election, he switched allegiance to Indian National Congress and won from Guna a third time; the 1984 election brought Scindia his first experience as a Minister. He made his mark as an excellent administrator during his stint as Railways Minister (22 October 1986 – 1 December 1989) in the Rajiv Gandhi Ministry; he was also the President of the Board of Control for Cricket in India from 1990 to 1993.
